THE COSTELLO MEMOIRS

UPDATED PAPERBACK EDITION

By Peter Costello with Peter Coleman

'should remain a manifesto for every centre-right political party wishing to replicate Australia's golden era of economic prosperity'
Wall Street Journal Asia

'Costello brings a great perspective, a true insider's account, of some of the most momentous events of recent political history.'
Canberra Times

The Costello Memoirs is a frank and fearless look inside the engine-room of the Liberal Party and the Howard Government.

In a political career spanning more than eighteen years, Peter Costello, Australia's longest serving Treasurer, steered the Government through some of its greatest economic and political challenges, paying off Government debt, introducing the GST and fighting five elections.

The Costello Memoirs charts the victories and defeats in one man's very public life.

Peter Costello was Australia's longest serving Treasurer, and Deputy Leader of the Liberal Party from 1994 to 2007.

Peter Coleman has been a member of the Federal Parliament (1981–87) and the New South Wales Parliament (1968–78). He is a writer/journalist and has been editor of The Bulletin and Quadrant. His many books include a study of the intellectuals in the Cold War, The Liberal Conspiracy: The Congress for Cultural Freedom and the Struggle for the Mind of Postwar Europe, and the autobiographical Memoirs of a Slow Learner. He was a foundation member of the Australian Council for the Arts (1968–73) and Chairman of the Australian Film and Television School (1971–73). He was Administrator of Norfolk Island (1979–81). He is Peter Costello's father-in-law.
