OCEANS

By Andrew Dwyer

Oceans: Recipes and Stories from Australia's Coastline is a must for anyone who loves to cook or feast on seafood. The recipes range from sauteed lobster tails to traditional fish & chips, and are suitable for both the open fire and the stove top.

This book tells you how to buy the best seafood, how to store it and exciting ways to prepare it. Andrew Dwyer's no-fuss, contemporary original recipes are for the novice and the old hand, and show you scores of different ways to prepare successful seafood dishes.

Stunning food photography from renowned photographer John Hay and evocative images from our coastline bring this book alive, as well as the seafaring stories of mutiny, murder, piracy, exploration and heroism from both the past and present.

Andrew Dwyer is the author of Outback: Recipes and Stories from the Campfire. He runs outback expeditions and is an experienced bushman and chef who has a great love of the Australian outdoors. He has been involved with the tourism industry for more than twenty years and has presented cooking programs on The Great Outdoors and conducted cooking classes on outback cuisine in the United States. In 1992 he received the Victorian Tourism Award for Tour Operator of the Year, and in 1994 he was awarded the German Holiday Oscar for Best Adventure Tour Worldwide. In 2006 he won the Victorian Tourism Award for Most Significant Contribution by an Individual to the Tourism Industry.
