BABYLON

by Stephen Sewell

“You know what your problem is,” Dan said, “You think there’s a difference between being alive and being dead.”

“Isn’t there?” asked Mick

“If there is, which one are you now,” Dan answered.

An English backpacker heads north for sun, women and a shot at making a fortune working the prawn trawlers. Mick is looking for adventure, but hitching a ride with the enigmatic Dan leads him into more trouble than even the most reckless traveller could hope for. As the pair speed their way through the apocalyptic landscape, in a spiral of escalating violence, Dan reveals the world as seen through his eyes, and exposes Mick’s true nature.

A gripping tale of two men—one struggling to become a man and the other with the cruelest of intentions—and a game of psychological cat-and-mouse, Babylon takes you to the edge, and never brings you back.

Stephen Sewell is the author of the novelisation of Animal Kingdom, the screenwriter of the multi-award winning film The Boys, and has won numerous awards for his plays including Three Furies. He was also the script editor on the film Chopper.

Captive, the sequel to Babylon, will be published in 2012.
