GRAHAM Kennedy was Mr Television. And here Mike McColl-Jones takes an insider look at his life, from his childhood in suburban Melbourne to his years on radio and on to his TV years through to retirement in the country.

There's stories and gossip from all of Kennedy's friends, including Bert Newton and Noeline Brown. McColl-Jones was a Kennedy insider and one of the original writers on In Melbourne Tonight. The book features at least 300 photographs, scripts, letters, reviews and everyday clutter from a life lived in full.
