

day out

education program is opening up our services to primary and secondary disadvantaged schools.

on gives students the opportunity to attend free full-day on our exhibitions, collections and curriculum-based d based on the Department of Education and Early Child- student Family Occupation (SFO) rating. All participating to have a high percentage of students from disadvantaged Specifically, schools that haven't previously been able to program at the Library or have been unlikely to use our ority.

Photographer: Carla Godgers

Burke and Wills Open Access program

participate in the day-long program of activities, but are travel to the Library, access to online teacher-education classroom learning, and opportunities for professional ran two programs: Burke and Wills for Grade 5-6 and Adventure for Year 8 students. During the year more across Melbourne attended these programs.

year, the focus of the program will shift to picture book complement the Library's latest exhibition Look! The art of today. (Read more about the exhibition on pp 4-5.)

previous programs it is anticipated Open Access Look! students.

ication program is funded for three years by the John T

new releases

The Garden of Ideas: Four Centuries of Australian Style

Richard Aitken

The Miegunyah Press in association with the State Library of Victoria

$64.99 (hardback)

A beautifully illustrated publication that tells the inspiring story of Australian garden design from the late 18th century to today. It features paintings, drawings, prints, plans and photographs, many of which have never previously been published. Richard Aitken is a Melbourne-based architect, historian, curator and poet/critic.

The West and the Map of the World: A reappraisal of the past

Matthew Richardson

The Miegunyah Press in association with the State Library of Victoria

$69.99 (hardback)

Inspired by antique maps and the mapmakers' global vision, this lavishly illustrated book presents the past as a single narrative in which European history is an offshoot of Asian history. It features more than 100 maps from the State Library of Victoria's collection. Matthew Richardson is an author, history editor, publisher at Halstead Press and a former Library Fellow.

When We Think About Melbourne: The imagination of a city

Jenny Sinclair

Affirm Press in association with the State Library of Victoria $34.95 (paperback)

What makes Melbourne unique? Jenny Sinclair goes in search of the answers and discovers that it's all in our heads. This book is a wry and whimsical survey of Melbourne's collective imagination, through the city's music, art, literature, film, maps and transport. Jenny Sinclair is a Melbourne writer and former journalist for The Age and The Melbourne Times.

slv.vic.gov.au/explore/our-publications